In Re: Microsoft (Quinn)

Dear Mr. Rosen:

I am responding to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated March 12, 2015 that we received on March 13, 2015.

I am not able to send the information you requested by April 10, 2015, which is the 20 business-day period allowed by law. The FOIA allows an additional ten-day statutory extension in certain circumstances. To complete your request I require the additional time to:

- X Search for and collect the requested records from other locations
 Search for, collect, and review a large volume of records
 Consult with another agency or Treasury component
 Consult with business submitters

We have extended the statutory response date to April 24, 2015, after which you can file suit. An administrative appeal is limited to a denial of records, so it does not apply in this situation. I apologize for any inconvenience caused by this delay.

You may file suit after April 24, 2015. Your complaint will be treated according to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applicable to actions against an agency of the United States. These procedures require that the IRS be notified of the pending suit through service of process, which should be directed to:

Commissioner of Internal Revenue
Attention: CC:PA: Br 6/7
1111 Constitution Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20224

The FOIA process provides access to existing records. Extending the time period for responding to your request will not delay or postpone any administrative, examination, investigation or collection action.
